OPENING HYMN *(The people stand)FORTY DAYS AND FORTY NIGHTS

Forty days and forty nights You were fasting in the wild;
Forty days and forty nights, tempted and yet undefiled.

Should not we thy sorrow share and from worldly joys abstain,
Fasting with unceasing prayer, strong with Thee to suffer pain?

Then if Satan on us press, Jesus, Savior, hear our call!
Victor in the wilderness, grant we may not faint nor fall.

So shall we have peace divine; holier gladness ours shall be;
Round us, too, shall angels shine, such as ministered to Thee.

Keep, O keep us, Savior dear, ever constant by thy side,
That with Thee we may appear at the eternal Eastertide.

THE ACCLAMATION

Officiant Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins,
People His mercy endures for ever.

THE COLLECT FOR PURITY

All Almighty God, to You all hearts are open, all desires known, and from You no secrets are hid. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love You, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE DECALOGUE (Ten Commandments) (The people sit or kneel if able)

Officiant God spoke these words and said:

I am the Lord your God. You shall have no other gods but me.

People Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Officiant You shall not make for yourself any idol.

People Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Officiant You shall not take the Name of the Lord your God in vain.
People Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.
Officiant Remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy.
People Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.
Officiant Honor your father and your mother.
People Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.
Officiant You shall not murder.
People Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.
Officiant You shall not commit adultery.
People Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.
Officiant You shall not steal.
People Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.
Officiant You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.
People Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.
Officiant You shall not covet.
People Lord, have mercy upon us, and write all these, your laws, in our hearts, we beseech you.

Exodus 20:1-17; Deuteronomy 5:6-21

THE EXHORTATION

Officiant Dearly beloved in the Lord: if you intend to come to the Holy Communion of the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ, you must consider how Saint Paul, in his First Letter to the Corinthians, exhorts us all diligently to examine ourselves before we presume to eat of that Bread, and drink of that Cup. For as the benefit is great, if we receive that holy Sacrament with a truly penitent heart and lively faith, spiritually eating the Flesh of Christ and drinking his Blood, so that we might be made one with Christ and he with us; so also is the danger great, if we receive these gifts unworthily. For then we become guilty of profaning the Body and Blood of Christ our Savior, and we eat and drink to our own condemnation.

Therefore, judge yourselves lest you be judged by the Lord. First, examine your life by the rule of God's commandments. Wherever you have offended, either by thought, word, or deed, confess your sins to Almighty God, with the full intention to amend your life. Be ready to make restitution for all injuries and wrongs you have done to others; and also be ready to forgive others who have offended you: for otherwise, if you unworthily receive Holy Communion, you will increase your own condemnation. Therefore, repent of your sins, or else do not come to God's Holy Table.

If you have come here today with a troubled conscience, and you need help and counsel, come to me, or to some other Priest, and confess your sins, that you may receive godly counsel, direction, and absolution. To do so will both satisfy your conscience and remove any scruples or doubt.

Above all, each of us should give humble and hearty thanks to God for the redemption of the world by the death and passion of our Savior Jesus Christ. He humbled himself, even to death on a Cross, for us sinners who lay in darkness and in the shadow of death, that he might make us children of God, and exalt us to everlasting life.

Because of his exceedingly great love for us, our Savior Jesus Christ has instituted and ordained these holy mysteries as pledges of his love, and for a continual remembrance of his death and passion, to our great and endless comfort.

To him, therefore, with the Father and the Holy Spirit, let us give continual thanks, as is our duty and our joy, submitting ourselves entirely to his holy will and striving to serve him in holiness and righteousness all the days of our life. Amen.

THE CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION OF SIN

(The people sit or kneel if able)

Officiant Let us humbly confess our sins to Almighty God.

All Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against You in thought, word and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved You with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Officiant Almighty God, our heavenly Father, who in his great mercy has promised forgiveness of sins to all those who sincerely repent and with true faith turn to Him, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and bring you to everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

THE COMFORTABLE WORDS

SILENT GRADUAL (The people stand)

During this season of Lent the Gospel Procession will be done in silence. The Gospel reading is processed into the midst of the People to signify Christ's coming into the world. Most of the year, this procession is accompanied with songs of praise and devotion. In Lent, we stand in silence, remembering the Lamb of God came to suffer, to be led to slaughter, and to bear our sins in his own body on the tree of the cross.

THE GOSPEL

Officiant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according St Luke.
People Glory to You, Lord Christ.

Luke 4:1-13

Officiant The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to You, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON

(Rev.) David Simmons

THE NICENE CREED (The people stand)

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, visible and invisible.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us and for our salvation He came down from heaven, was incarnate from the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate; He suffered death and was buried. On the third day He rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his Kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Celebrant Christ our Passover Lamb has been sacrificed, once for all upon the Cross.

People Therefore let us keep the feast.

THE PRAYER OF HUMBLE ACCESS (Spoken)

All We do not presume to come to this your table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness,
but in your abundant and great mercies.
We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under your table;
but You are the same Lord, whose character is always to have mercy.
Grant us, therefore, gracious Lord,
so to eat the flesh of your dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that our sinful bodies may be made clean by his body,
and our souls washed through his most precious blood,
and that we may evermore dwell in Him, and He in us. Amen.

CLOSING HYMN

VICTORY IN JESUS

During penitential seasons, like Lent, we will not have children come forward for the Dismissal.

I heard an old, old story, how a Savior came from glory,
How He gave his life on Calvary to save a wretch like me;
I heard about his groaning of his precious blood's atoning.
Then I repented of my sins and won the victory!

Chorus

O victory in Jesus, my Savior forever.
He sought me and bought me with his redeeming blood.
He loved me ere I knew Him and all my love is due Him;
He plunged me to victory beneath the cleansing flood.

I heard about his healing, of his cleansing pow'r revealing,
How He made the lame to walk again and caused the blind to see;
And then I cried, "Dear Jesus, come and heal my broken spirit!"
And somehow Jesus came and brought to me the victory.

I heard about a mansion He has built for me in glory,
And I heard about the streets of gold beyond the crystal sea,
About the angels singing, and the old redemption story,
And some sweet day I'll sing up there the song of victory.

THE DISMISSAL

Officiant Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

People Thanks be to God!
